Split Threatens Over Homeless European Folk

Senators McGrath, Hatch Point Up Issue in Bill to Lower U. S. Immigration Bars to 200,000 Persons

Washington, May 13 (AP)—A party line split threatened to develop today over proposals to admit some of Europe's homeless families and orphans into the United States.

Democratic Senators McGrath (R-I) and Hatch (N.M.) pointed to the issue unexpectedly late yesterday. They introduced a bill to lower the immigration bars to 200,000 displaced persons during the next two years, and ease the requirements for entry into the United States.

The McGrath-Hatch measure is a substitute for an earlier bill approved by the Republican-controlled Senate Judiciary Committee.

The original bill provides that only 100,000 displaced persons could enter the country from Europe during the next two years. And those who did enter would have to meet strict requirements in housing and job prospects.

The substitute not only doubles the immigration quota, but does these things:

1. Says unmarried minor orphans should not be counted against the quota. The original bill counted the 100,000.

2. Permits entry of persons who were in the British, French or American zones of occupation on or before April 21, 1947. The other bill fixes this eligibility date as December 22, 1945.

3. Provides immigration priorities "based on specified skills and occupational needs in this country" and gives preference to close relatives of people living in the U. S.

4. The original requires the DP's to have assurance of suitable employment and "decent, safe and sanitary housing without displacing some other person from such housing."

5. Makes no distinction between persons living in or out of a DP camp. The committee bill gives priority to DP's living in camps.

The new bill brought a quick flurry of debate.

Senator Wherry of Nebraska, G.O.P. floor leader, asked McGrath whether he had asked Republican members of the Judiciary committee to join in sponsoring the new measure. McGrath, a committee member, said he had not.

"But this is a substitute bill," said Wherry.

"Yes, and I have the right to file it," McGrath retorted.

Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) said he has been unable to find a report of the hearings on the original bill. McGrath explained the bill was

President Defies Congress on Secrets

Washington, May 13 (AP)—President Truman today defied Congress to get confidential information from the White House or the cabinet.

He told a news conference that Congress has no right to confidential records of members of his cabinet.

He said he would veto any legislation requiring such records, and that he did not believe the veto would be overridden.

The courts have held repeatedly, he said, that the President and his cabinet cannot be forced to divulge confidential information.

Congressional Committee workers and officials in executive agencies appear likely to be the only persons subject in jail terms under a so-called "secrets" bill now pending.

Warning Is Made About War Goods

Aid Program Director Says Europeans Are Not to Send Machinery to Russia

Screening Assured

Requests for Help Are to Be Checked, He Says

Washington, May 13 (AP)—The United States will shut off economic aid to any European nation which supplies war machinery to Russia, E.R.P. Director Paul Hoffman said today.

Hoffman said: "We will tell them they must stop it or we won't furnish aid."

The economic cooperation administrator was before the Senate Appropriations Committee to ask further funds for the European Recovery Program.

Senator Cordon (R-Ore.) asked Hoffman what he intended to do to "control the translation of our goods and money" into war machinery for Russia?

"If it is true," said Hoffman, "that we are furnishing aid, and if a country is shipping such commodities, (to Russia), they have got to stop it or we won't furnish aid."

Hoffman gave the senators assurance, too, that E.C.A. will ship abroad only those goods—which can wisely and safely be spared.

"Continued United States prosperity is paramount to the achievement of European recovery," he said.

Hoffman appeared before the Senate Appropriations Committee to plead for the full $4,245,000,000 balance needed to round out the $5,300,000,000 Congress has authorized for the recovery program.

The remainder of the sum has been provided for through advances from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and Congress.

The E.C.A. chief promised the committee that requests for aid by European nations will be carefully screened and the use of American dollars overseas will be thoroughly checked.

He also said the program soon will shift from an emergency relief basis to "full fledged recovery efforts."

Hoffman explained that relief shipments of food were necessary at the outset but starting July 1, he said, there will be a "considerable shift" to machinery, materials and similar goods designed to spur recovery.

Starting October 1, he reported, "we are hoping the emphasis will be on the recovery items."

He also gave the senators this assurance: "We are not going to let the civil rights issue ahead of schedule."

The bill seeks congressional approval of an education compact entered into by 15 southern states as the first step toward creating a series of regional universities.

Senator Morse (R-Ore.) has moved to send the measure back to the Judiciary committee for further study. He contends that under the Constitution such pacts do not require approval of Congress.

Morse has announced that if his motion is defeated, he will call up an amendment intended to prevent segregation of Negroes from white students in the proposed regional schools.

He also has threatened to tack the rest of President Truman's civil rights program to the compact bill. It was that program—calling for anti-lynch, anti-job discrimination and anti-poll tax legislation—which touched off the rebellion of southern Democrats.

They have promised a filibuster whenever any of these measures is brought up.

Dixie senators have picked Russell to quarterback their battle. He told a reporter that at today's session the group expects to decide whether to:

1. Let the compact bill go back to the Judiciary committee.

2. Or, line up against the Morse motion and take their chances on beating off the anti-segregation amendment.

Russell indicated he favors the latter course.

Boy, 13, Tumbles 3 Stories From Window in YWCA

Thomas Nassan Reported Unhurt Except for Cut Lip During Games Period

Thomas Nassan, about 13, of 417 Hasbrouck avenue, escaped serious injury when he fell to the ground from a third story window in the Y.W.C.A. building, 209 Clinton avenue, about 4 p. m. Wednesday, according to a Y.W.C.A. source.

Nassan was taken to the Benedictine Hospital in a Conner's ambulance, from where he was sent to the office of Dr. Robert F. Moseley, who reported today that apparently the boy was a cut lip.

Just before the accident, young Nassan had been playing table tennis on the third floor, during an informal co-ed program conducted after school at the Y.W.C.A. It is believed his paddle dropped out the window, and in grabbing for it, he slipped and fell out.

According to eye-witnesses, the boy was not knocked unconscious by his three story fall, and vigorously protested he was not injured. He is a seventh grade student at the Myron J. Michael School.

Roy Myer Jr., 11, of Saugerties was injured last night when a pick-up truck operated by Walter Erec, 24, of 9 Robinson street, Saugerties went off its course and crashed into the Maroon gas station at Overbaugh street and Route 9W, Saugerties.

The boy was taken to the Dale Sanitarium in the village following first aid treatment by Dr. Lester E. Sinking. He suffered abrasions and contusions of the face and head and was reported in fair condition today by the Saugerties police, who investigated.

Young Myer, the report said, was standing near the gas station with his bicycle when the light truck swerved off the highway and crashed into the structure at about 9:15 p. m.

The police said the driver reported that he lost control of the truck at the intersection. It knocked out a large plate glass window in the gas station and crashed more than a foot inside the structure.

The driver suffered a sprained left leg and wrist, the police said, and was treated by Dr. D. W. Gifford. The truck, owned by the driver's brother, Herbert, was badly damaged.

Sgt. Harold Mills of the Saugerties police investigated the accident, which was the second in the village this week in which a child was injured.

Shelia Hughes, 5, of Montgomery street, was injured Monday afternoon when she was struck by an auto which rolled down the Montgomery street hill from a spot where it had been left parked, and struck her after hitting a hydrant and a fence.

Says Russia Problem Is 'Covered'

Truman Repeats, He Would Be Happy to Meet Stalin in Washington

Seems Up to Reds

Capital Reaction Seems Based on Whether Soviets Will Change

Washington, May 13 (AP)—President Truman said today that his hopes for eventual peace have not been increased by the recent exchange of notes with Russia.

The President told a news conference he is supporting to the limit Secretary of State Marshall's statement that what is needed is action, rather than general talks. Marshall said yesterday that if Russia desires to promote peace she can act through the United Nations and other allied agencies. The secretary of state ruled out any two-nation, Russo-American talks on matters of concern also to other nations.

President Truman said Marshall covered thoroughly the situation as left by the exchange of notes between Russia and the United States.

In response to questions, the President repeated what he has said often before—that he would be glad to meet with Soviet Premier Stalin in Washington.

Asked what the two would talk about at such a meeting, the President said he would tell the newsmen know if such a meeting ever came about.

The whole reaction here to Russia's publication of the notes suggests that the change for any real improvement in relations between Russia and the United States hinges on whether there will be a basic change in Soviet foreign policy.

That is indicated strongly by the statements of all top officials.

At Mr. Truman's conference, the question which led to his statement on peace prospects went in this manner:

A reporter recalled that the President told a news conference some weeks ago that his confidence in eventual permanent peace had been somewhat shaken by developments abroad. He asked what the President thought were the prospects now for permanent peace.

Mr. Truman said he thought that there had been no basic change in the prospects.

He remarked that this nation will work through the United Nations and that there ultimately will be peace throughout the world.

In reply to other questions, Mr. Truman said the note Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith handed Foreign Minister Molotov had his approval and that of his cabinet.

Someone asked if he and the cabinet had considered the last paragraph of Smith's note.

(The Russians interpreted that part as an invitation to two-power talks.)

The President replied that the note had been considered from the beginning to the very end.

Then he added that he did not see that the exchange of notes had increased materially the prospects for peace.

Both President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall have emphasized within the last three

Bids' Deadline Is Set by Authority On New Approach

Hagginbotham Says June 2 Is Last Day; Plans May Be Seen at Poughkeepsie

The last day for submitting sealed proposals for furnishing labor and materials necessary in widening the easterly approach of the Mid-Hudson bridge is Wednesday, June 2, at 2 p. m., was announced today by William K. Hagginbotham, executive officer of the New York State Bridge Authority.

Bids must be received by that time at the office of the bridge authority at 103 Union street, Poughkeepsie. They will then be publicly opened and read.

Plans, specifications, proposal blanks, form of contract, bond and information for bidders may be seen at that office, and copies of the same may be obtained from there upon deposit of $15, which will be refunded if the plans and specifications are returned in good condition within 20 days after the bids are received.

Bids must be accompanied by a certified check on a National Bank, state bank or trust company in the amount of 10 per cent of the bid, made payable to the New York State Bridge Authority.

The widening of the approach will provide one additional lane for each direction of travel. It will be used to speed up the collecting process and relieve congestion on the bridge. Hagginbotham said to present there are two toll booths on the bridge.

Masselli Presents Lowest Bid on Glasco Highway

Connecticut Concern Offers $163,070 Figure; Will Resurface, Widen Road

The N. D. Masselli Corporation of Bloomfield, Conn., was low bidder on a project of widening to 22 feet and resurfacing 5.56 miles of Route 32 from Kingston northward toward Glasco, it was announced by Charles H. Sells of the New York State Department of Public Works following opening of bids in Albany Wednesday morning.

The Masselli Corporation estimated the job at $163,070. Other estimates received were from the Peckham Road Corporation of White Plains, $167,208, and from the Callanan Road Improvement Company of South Bethlehem, $167,680.

These bids were a part of the 76 bids opened Wednesday on 33 state highway projects, on which the low bid totaled $4,047,023.51.

Other projects in this area included the resurfacing with asphalt concrete of .38 miles of Main street in the village of

President Opposes Outlawing Communists

Washington, May 13 (AP)—President Truman expressed opposition today to outlawing the Communist party in this country.

He gave this view at a news conference during discussion of the Mundt bill to require Communists to register with the government.

Mr. Truman said he was not forecasting his action on that bill. He thought that there were ample laws to deal with persons who advocate overthrow of the government.

He added that he thought legislation outlawing a political party is contrary to American principles.

Stassen and Dewey Begin Final Drives in Far West

Portland, Ore., May 13 (AP)—Republican leaders Harold E. Stassen and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey headed today into the home stretch of their clearcut race for this far west state's Presidential preference vote.

Both candidates thumped on the topic of Communism last night in America and all free-riders.

Stassen initiated his final drive in an address here in western Oregon. At the same time his New York opponent appeared before a crowd at Pendleton, in the eastern Oregon wheat region. Each has a full schedule of appearances through the state before the ballots are cast May 21.

The election is the last direct primary before the party's national nomination convention in June. Both candidates—alone in the race—have to a great measure their Presidential chances at stake in winning in Oregon.

Still undecided is the time and place for the unprecedented debate the two have agreed to stage.

Stassen said on arriving in Oregon yesterday he hopes the discussion on Communism would include vital national issues. At Pendleton, aides of Dewey indicated that Stassen's view had been transmitted to the governor and that he may have it under consideration. Aides are to meet today on the debate arrangements.

The Minnesota returned last night his earlier demand that Communist organizations be outlawed. He spoke before less than 1,500 persons.

"I realize full well that there are those who disagree with me in this position," he said. "President Truman, Governor Dewey and Henry Wallace all continue to believe that the blessings of legality should be extended to the Communist organization."

He then referred directly to his opponent in the Oregon primary. He said "I am certain that Governor Dewey is sincere in his position, but I submit that he is mistaken."

At Pendleton, Gov. Dewey asserted America's food production is the only realistic weapon against the spread of Communism in the world.

In our foreign relations we must use food as a positive force for peace," he said. "Food is certainly on a par with guns and ships and airplanes. So far as the average citizen abroad is concerned, it is ever so much more important."

The New York executive predicted the battle against Communism is going to be a long, tough one. "It is not going to be over in a few months or a few years. Communism has its best chance with people who are hungry, poorly clothed and ill-housed," he said.

Stassen remains in Portland for another rally tonight, then heads up state. The Dewey caravan moves toward Portland. The New Yorker will inspect the McNary Dam site on the Columbia river today and be at Hood river tonight.

Southern Democrats Order Talks on Civil Rights

Washington, May 13 (AP)—The Senate's southern Democrats ordered a powwow today to decide whether to risk a civil rights showdown now.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.) called a forenoon meeting (exact time uncertain) of the Dixie lawmakers as the Senate cleared the decks for a test vote at 3 p. m. (E.S.T.). The vote was scheduled on a motion to return to committee a bill which has raised the civil rights issue ahead of schedule.

The bill seeks congressional approval of an education compact entered into by 15 southern states as the first step toward creating a series of regional universities.

Senator Morse (R-Ore.) has moved to send the measure back to the Judiciary committee for further study. He contends that under the Constitution such pacts do not require approval of Congress.

Naval Reserve Is Backed by LeFevre

The regular meeting of the Kingston Volunteer Naval Reserve Unit in Kingston was held last evening at the American Legion building.

At the outset, two letters were read to the members by Congressman LeFevre, wherein he stated that he had already been in communication with the proper naval authorities in urging the establishment of an Organized Naval Reserve Unit in the city of Kingston.

The next order of business was the organization of a radio and electronics group under the supervision of Andrew Gurovich. The Navy Department will furnish all the necessary equipment, such as transmitters, receivers and other radar equipment. A suitable location has already been considered for installation of this expensive equipment. There are 20 men in this group. Another group has been organized for machinists and water tenders. Within the next month or so, six independent groups will be in operation.

In addition the following named men have indicated their desire to go on a two weeks training cruise on the U.S.S. Albany, a light cruiser: Albert Hendricks, Henry Amell, Eugene Patruski, George Geisler, Thomas Flynn, Jr., and William Barklay.

Tomato Case Won By Plaintiff; Is Awarded $1,800

Testimony was closed and summations made late Wednesday in the contract action brought by Joseph Matthews of Milton against Ltd. Hudson G.L.P. Produce Auction, Inc., an action brought to recover damages for an alleged error in supplying tomato seed. Plaintiff contended that he bought 84 ounces of tomato seeds which were represented to be Rutgers. He raised the plants, sold some 100,000 to farmers and planted some of the plants himself. Plaintiff contended the plants failed to turn out as Rutgers variety.

The jury returned a verdict late Wednesday evening for $1,800 for plaintiff, after first finding that the tomato plants were not of the Rutgers variety.

Michael Nardone appeared for plaintiff and Henry J. Shirley was attorney of record for defendant.

On the call of the calendar this morning before Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth, No. 108 was announced. It is an action for negligence brought by George Scott, against Joseph Pavera and another, A. J. Cook for plaintiff and H. P. Hastings, Jr., for defendants. Two negligence actions were

Air Force Tests Tiny Fighter for B-36 Hitch-hiking

New York, May 13 (AP)—The Air Force announced today it is testing a tiny hitch-hiking, jet-propelled fighter designed to be as easy to super-charge as a B-36.

The miniature fighter is the McDonnell XF-52, a radical design intended to be stored in the bomb bay of a B-36, which is more than 100 feet long.

The XF-52 is designed to be launched from the bomb bay of a B-36 and to land by hooking onto the B-36's landing gear.

The XF-52 is a single-engine, single-seat fighter with a wingspan of 21 feet and a length of 15 feet. It has sweptback wings, which fold at the outer panels. Double rudders are part of the design to put the plane into the smallest possible space.

It has no landing gear other than a retractable hook ahead of the cockpit by which it can be swung down from the bomb bay for launching in flight. It lands by engaging the hook.

The plane can be fueled and serviced in flight, and can be jet-launched in an emergency.

The plane is powered with a Westinghouse 240 axial flow jet engine capable of 3,000 pounds of thrust. At the top estimated speed of the XF-52, around 650 miles an hour, that thrust would equal about 6,000 horsepower from a piston engine.

The "Parasite" fighter is one answer to the need of long range bombers for escort. Near the end of World War II, fighter planes with a combat radius of 1,600 miles were developed. However, post-war advances have put bomber range beyond that expectable from fighters.

The XF-52 was built at the McDonnell plant in St. Louis, Mo., and will make its first flight above Murray, Calif., air base, flying from the belly of a specially equipped B-36.

While capable of very high speeds and a tremendous rate of climb, the range of the "Parasite" is relatively short. In combat it would make quick sorties against attacking planes, returning for fuel and ammunition after each interception.

The idea is comparable to that of an aircraft carrier escorting other surface ships.

Generally speaking bridge players in the United States have contented themselves with bridge books by American authors. Recently, however, several interesting bridge books have come from England. I have just looked over a new one by Terence Reese of England entitled "Reese on Play." It is a book on the play of the hand that I can recommend highly to anyone who wants to improve his game.

In today's Lesson Hand I have taken a safety play given in Mr. Reese's book. When the opening lead of the king of diamonds holds, West shifts to the queen of clubs. Looking at both hands it is obvious that declarer has two losing spades. He already has lost a diamond and must lose a club trick. How can he condense his four losers into three?

First of all he must win the first club trick in dummy with the ace. If he does not East can overtake the queen with the king and lead through the spades. Declarer's next play should be the ten of diamonds, discarding the six of clubs from his own hand. West will win this trick with the Jack and lead another club. South trumps, then leads the ace and a small trump. On dummy's nine of diamonds he discards the three of spades, and this establishes the eight of diamonds for the discard of the queen of spades.

What actually happens is that on the ten, nine and eight of diamonds declarer discards three losers because one of them becomes established for the trick needed to make the contract.

McLennan Requests "More Understanding"

Schenectady, N. Y., May 13 (AP)—A State Agriculture Department official called today for "more understanding" between city people and farmers.

Department Secretary Donald D. McLennan in a radio address prepared for delivery over Station WGY, said "the two groups will find they will profit by coming closer."

"No formal organization is needed to do this," he added. "Simple understanding can succeed."

McLennan said thousands of the state's residents were among those who regard New York "only as a land of cities."

"These people would be amazed to know that only 11 other states derive more revenue from the sale of farm products than does New York and that the total value of our farms, implements, livestock and farm products is measured in the billions of dollars," he said.

Late Government
Idaho had no form of government for more than 50 years after the first white men, Lewis and Clark, set foot on the territory.

Queens Bus Lines File Applications

New York, May 13 (AP)—Five Queens Bus Lines filed applications yesterday with the Board of Estimate for fare increases. It was learned at City Hall.

The companies are the Queens-Nassau Transit Lines, the Triboro Coach Company, Green Bus Lines, Steinway Omnibus Corporation, and the Queensboro Bridge Railway, Inc.

It was reported that the Green Bus Line and its affiliate, the Triboro Coach Company, were seeking a seven cent fare with transfer charges for passengers using the bus and the city subway systems in Queens.

Sylvester Sheridan, Director of the Bureau of Franchises of the Board of Estimate, refused to reveal the specific amounts of fare increases sought by the companies.

The board, at its regular meeting today will consider the five applications from the Queens companies and also petitions for increased fares from the New City Omnibus Corporation, Fifth Avenue Coach Company, Avenue B and East Broadway Transit Company, the East Side and Comprehensive Omnibus Corporation, and the Third Avenue Transit Corporation.

The Fifth Avenue Coach Company is seeking a 12½ cent fare on its 10-cent fare lines and the New York City Omnibus Corporation is requesting eight cents on its five cent lines.

About seventy five million acres in the United States are desert, swamp, rocky or barren land.

Post: "Here is a sad little poem I dashed off last night. When I showed it to my wife, she actually cried."

Editor: "After reading the poem, 'Well, go home and promise your wife never to write any more poetry and she'll stop crying and wear a happy smile.'"

A merchant took out a fire insurance policy and the same day his store and contents burned to the ground. The insurance company suspected fraud, but couldn't prove anything. It had to content itself with writing the following letter:

Dear Sir: You took out an insurance policy at 10 A. M. and your fire did not break out until 3:30 P. M. Will you kindly explain the delay?"

Steward: Don't be discouraged, sir, no one has ever died of seasickness yet.

Passenger: Please don't say that. It's only the hope of dying that's kept me alive so far.

Be honest, of course, but don't brag about it in your ads.

Weary Willie asked for a hand-out at a suburban home and was received rather coldly.

Housewife: "Seems to me you could work for a living instead of coming around begging. You are big and husky and certainly could find a job."

Tramp: "That's right. And I've just been noting that you are beautiful enough to be a glamour" lady in the movies but you seem to prefer a more simple life."

Hearing a report that half the world doesn't know how the other half lives, the Neighbor says it is a good thing there are some folks who mind their own business.

Grandma: Now, Willie, if you're very good today I will give you a nickel.

Willie: You'll have to make it two nickels, grandma. I can't afford to be good for a nickel, with prices going up as they now are.

Flirt: "My life is like a book."

Mabel: "Yes, dear."

Flirt: "Chap One, Chap Two, and so on."

Morning in Spring
Glorious thru the early mist of dawn
The sun breaks thru, the night is gone.
She now sends her golden rays
To beautify and brighten our ways.
In the neighbor's yard a rooster crows
Telling the folks, it's time to do their chores.
A dog is barking way over the hill
Waiting the folks who are sleeping still.
Across the meadows in a budding tree
A bird is singing, a soft and lovely melody.
I saw the morning break, it seems to say
Joyful and happy to start another day.
Beneath a bright blue sky of joy
To look
Softly winds its way a murmuring brook.
In the sunbeam's gleaming light
Butterflies and bees are sparkling bright.
To bluebells and roses the dew drops cling Making it a perfect morn' in spring.

Recent War Department regulations make it permissible for members of the Officers Reserve Corps to serve with local National Guard units, it was announced at the 156th Field Artillery Battalion headquarters today.

Officers of the Reserve Corps may make application for duty with the National Guard and perform army drill with the local unit, receiving compensation for this drill, Colonel Frank W. Harbin explained. Officers who perform this duty will retain their Reserve Officer status and do not become members of the National Guard, he said.

However, these officers are given credit for federal service at the rate of 30 days for each year with the National Guard, plus any field training that the Guard may be called upon to perform.

Further information on this plan is available at the state armory on Manor avenue.

The 156th Field Artillery Battalion will leave for Pine Camp on July 31 for a 15-day training period, and Reserve officers who sign up now will be given credit for 15 days of field training and at the same time would be serving with them from their own vicinity, Col. Harbin said.

Days that there is no departure in American policy, which is aimed at preventing further expansion of Russian power.

But the hope that there may be a change in the Soviet attitude toward the "cold war" and an increased willingness to settle outstanding problems was suggested directly by Marshall at a news conference.

Marshall cited a passage from Molotov's note last Sunday in which he declared that Russia intends to carry out "a peace-loving policy and one of collaboration with regard to the U. S. A."

Molotov said this has always been Russia's policy and it has had the unanimous support of the Soviet people.

Lemister Chosen By Esopus Post For Boys' State

PETER J. LEMISTER, JR.

Peter J. Lemister, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Lemister, of Port Ewen has been designated by Town of Esopus Post, 1298, American Legion as the Post's selective to attend the 1948 American Legion Empire Boys' State. The announcement of the selection of "Pete" as he is known in Port Ewen, was made at the meeting of the Post Tuesday evening upon the recommendation of Edward H. Hung, Boys' State Chairman of the Post. The recommendation of Chairman Hung was predicated on young Lemister's designation as top eligible boy from the Town of Esopus attending Kingston High School and was made by a faculty committee, headed by Principal Clarence Quinn. First and second alternates are Donnie A. Harringer of Esopus and Leroy Herdman of Connelly.

Peter is not only a good student but also popular with his group in Port Ewen. He received his primary schooling at School 13 in Port Ewen and is 17 years of age. He is a member of the Port Ewen Rifle, Drum and Bugle Corps.

The 1948 Empire Boys' State will be held this year at Colgate University, Hamilton, June 27 to July 3, inclusive.

Memorial Day

Memorial Day Chairman Harry VanOrmer announced at the meeting that Roger H. Loughran, prominent attorney of Kingston, will be the principal speaker at the Memorial Day observance at Riverview Cemetery. Chairman VanOrmer also announced that all schools, members of the Town Board and other organizations have been invited to take part in the observance sponsored by the Post.

Chairman Reuben Gullian of the Bazaar Committee reported plans are rapidly being made to make the Post bazaar one of the biggest and best ever held in the vicinity. The affair is being held at the Town Auditorium Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 27, 28 and 29. There will be many novel features with bazaar booths selling hand-made articles, family stationery, baked goods and other miscellaneous gifts. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Post is working diligently to have the articles ready for these booths. There will be refreshments for sale each night, social games and entertainment.

Nominations

The nominating committee appointed by Commander Chester W. Barth at the April meeting brought in its recommendations for nominations for election at the June meeting. John A. Henry was placed in nomination for the office of commander with Russell Maurer, Edward Hung and John Schussler as vice-commanders. Walter Schussler was nominated for adjutant, Edward McGroom as treasurer, John Coniglio as sergeant-at-arms, the Rev. Fred W. Shine as chaplain, P. J. Deichert as historian, C. W. Barth and T. J. Morrissey as members of the executive committee. John A. Henry, C. W. Barth and Clifford Dugan, Jr. were nominated as delegates to the county convention and committee with Edgar Maurer, Charles Beck and B. Davis as alternates.

Commander Barth reported plans are going forward for the dedication of the Post Home the early part of June. It is expected the home will be available June 1 and shortly thereafter the dedication will take place. It is recalled that the Post purchased the former Charles N. Behrens property on Emogene street about two months ago as a Legion home. It was brought out at the meeting last evening that all proceeds from the bazaar will be used to liquidate part of the outstanding balance on the home.

There was a good turnout of members at the meeting and all were enthusiastic about the prospects of having their own Legion home.

Mayonnaise Maker Whips Up Contest

The makers of Cain's Mayonnaise announced today a 10-week contest with $2,000 in prizes beginning the week of May 17.

Each week this newspaper will carry a Cain advertisement containing a different recipe especially chosen by Mildred Carlson, well-known home economist, broadcaster and household page editor. Homemakers are invited to try the recipe, using Cain's Mayonnaise as an ingredient, and then write in 50 words or less how their families liked the dish.

Each week for 10 weeks Cain's will award a $100 cash prize for the best letter of the week. The ten best letters will win copies of the popular Better Homes & Gardens Cook Book.

Cain's will award additionally $500 in cash for the best letter of the entire contest which will naturally be one of the weekly prize winners. Second and third grand prizes are $200 and $100 respectively.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

To New York State Gun Owners

A maximum penalty of five years imprisonment, or a fine of not over $1,000.00, or both, for a person whose negligent handling of a gun results in the death of another is provided under Senate Bill No. 1117 and Assembly Bill No. 1203 now pending in the New York State Legislature. The National Rifle Association of America, leading gun authorities and safety-minded gun owners everywhere have endorsed these bills as good, sensible steps toward greater gun safety. With these strong endorsements, the bills are expected to become law at the next session of the Legislature.

How do the new SAFETY bills affect you, as a gun owner?

Years of experience have proved that guns, whether loaded or "unloaded", have caused death or serious injury to thousands of children or inexperienced persons who happened upon them in closets or gun racks.

In fact, today gun accidents are the sixth ranking cause of fatal injury. Obviously, there is a real need for the new SAFETY BILLS which affect each and every individual gun owner in the State. Soon, it will be your legal, as well as moral responsibility to take additional safety precautions to protect the lives of others.

Here's what you can do to make your gun safer... and, at the same time, take an important step to conform to the SAFETY BILLS.

A new safety guard especially designed to take the "shutter snap" element out of ordinary gun handling is TRIGGER-SAFE. By locking TRIGGER-SAFE in place with a key, you will make it impossible for an unwary and untrained finger to touch off the trigger.

TRIGGER-SAFE has been hailed by leading gun authorities and associations as the greatest gun safety advance in years. Harry E. Haynes, former Savage Arms representative and a rifleman for over sixty years says: "I consider TRIGGER-SAFE a fine safety device which should prevent many gun accidents. It should be used by all gun owners."

You can make your guns safe and take important steps to conform to the Safety Bills. Just clip the coupon below and enclose $2 in check, money order or cash for quick post-paid delivery of TRIGGER-SAFE.

New Instructors Join Air School; Three Make Solo

Henry Kaehler, director of the Kingston-Ulster Flying School, announced today the appointment of Herbert G. Stauning, 35 Charlotte Place, and Edward J. Renner of Quarryville to the staff of instructors at that school.

Stauning, who has just completed the flight instructor course at the Kingston-Ulster airport, had five years of flight experience in the U. S. Navy. He enlisted soon after the war began, and following his discharge in June, 1947, he was employed as a commercial pilot by the Mid-Hudson Flying Service, Inc., at that airport. He has approximately 1,500 flight hours to his credit, and is a graduate of Kingston High School and a native of this city.

Renner, a graduate of Saugerties High School, attended the Dallas Aviation School and Kurtzer's Seaplane Base in Seattle, Wash.

tentative estimate of E.C.A. shipments in its first year:

Food and farm products, $2,273,900,000; fuel $625,000,000; raw materials $810,100,000; machinery and equipment $776,800,000; miscellaneous $264,600,000.

Ocean shipping costs and price adjustments will add $311,600,000, Hoffman said, and other outlays will add $22,000,000 to bring the cost to the $5,300,000,000.

From this may be deducted $55,000,000 in funds already appropriated and $1,000,000,000 obtained through R.F.C. This brings the total down to the $4,245,000,000 for which Hoffman asked.

The Senate Committee headed by Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) has promised a thorough scrutiny of E.C.A.'s spending and lending plans. The House Appropriations Committee already has similar studies under way.

rushed out of committee to get it to the Senate for speedy action.

He said no report has been printed, but that each committee member reserved the right to offer amendments.

"It is inconceivable," Lucas said, "there was no report on a bill of such importance."

Lucas arose to say that he regretted any misunderstanding or "wrong inference" in the introduction of the new bill, actually offered as an amendment.

"We ask you," he said, "to read this amendment tonight and say you will join us. We want your support."

Legion Auxiliary Plans Food Sale

Woodstock, May 13—Due to a lack of necessary articles, the proposed American Legion Auxiliary food sale has been canceled and a food sale has been planned instead, it was announced today.

The food sale will be held Saturday, May 22, beginning at 11 a. m. at the Legion store.

It was reported today that Ann Kramer has been selected to attend the annual sessions of the State starting June 25 at Saratoga Springs. Regional representatives selected for attendance at the sessions were judged in school, leadership and sportsmanship. Only junior girls were considered.

Poppy Day Sale

The annual pre-Memorial Day Poppy sale will be held this month. Funds derived are used for the rehabilitation of the disabled veterans of the two world wars and their families.

The idea of a poppy as a memorial flower for World War dead originated from the fields of France where the wild flowers grew, the only touch of beauty which survived the war-wrecked fields. The crepe paper poppy was selected as the official poppy of the American Legion Auxiliary because it provides the maximum of work for the disabled veterans in its making and the minimum of expenditure for materials.

The making of the poppy, which is made from eight pieces of paper and two pieces of wire, has been a project for the disabled veterans for the past 26 years. Last year, the crepe paper poppies were made in 79 veterans hospitals and seven poppy workshops. There were 6,729 disabled veterans who made the flowers.

Village Notes

Woodstock, May 13—Ruth Hasbrouck participated in the spring concert of the college community chorus last Friday night in New Paltz.

Girl Scouts Fete Mothers at Tea

Woodstock, May 13—About 60 Girl Scouts, representing all three troops of the village, honored their mothers at a Mother's Day tea Sunday from 3:30 to 5 p. m. in the Methodist hall. The occasion also celebrated "Music Week."

The program, in charge of Miss Ruth Cohn, mistress of ceremonies, included the Girl Scout oath, laws, and the singing of several songs.

Liane Mower, Brownies; Joanne Lee, younger intermediates; and Carole Peters, older intermediates, spoke to those on hand concerning the year's activities. Other features included the singing of Now Is the Hour by Mary and Lucien Lupo, and the song "Mother" by the older troop.

Scout members later left the platform, pinned a pink carnation on their respective mothers, and then escorted them to the tea table. Mrs. Elizabeth Clough and Mrs. Fennell Franckling poured.

Mrs. C. Bennett, Mrs. D. Jackson, Mrs. D. Thayer, Mrs. Newton Shultz, Mrs. R. Lupo, Mrs. J. Foley, Miss Jean Shultz and Miss Evelyn DeGraff assisted in the program. The troop committee members furnished the food under the chairmanship of Mrs. Theodore Lee and Mrs. J. Van Rijn.

Approval Is Voted

Santiago, Chile, May 13 (AP)—The chamber of deputies voted general approval last night of a government measure to outlaw the Communist party in Chile. The vote was 13 to 20, with one abstention. Final chamber approval of the separate articles of the bill is expected tomorrow, after which it goes to the senate.

Schnauzer Causes Flurry

New York, May 13 (AP)—A dog's leap from a Hudson river ferry boat yesterday took another ferry a half-mile off its course to make a rescue. En route with his master, Elbert Goldstein, to Manhattan aboard a 125th street ferry, a 75-pound schnauzer jumped over the rail in midstream. The captain shouted to Joseph Tuzy, skipper of a ferry headed for the New Jersey shore. Tuzy veered off his course and crewmen hauled the dog aboard with a boat-hook. The dog was returned to its owner on the ferry's next trip, to Manhattan. Goldstein, a student and ex-G.I. who lives in New York, said he brought the schnauzer from Germany.

The Burmese New Year, celebrated this April, was 1310.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, May 12—Mrs. Earl Dean, formerly of Ashokan, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Earl Elmendorf, Mrs. Dean, who with her husband was a contemporary of Walter Winchell in metropolitan vaudeville before coming to this section, now resides in Pelham Manor.

Justus North, local building contractor, is still engaged upon renovations to the house and barn on the Watson Hollow place of Peter Cooper of Philadelphia. Mr. North has as his assistants his son, Norman, and James Bush. The Cooper place in the Hollow is the old Barnes family home-stand.

Joshua Bell, who was brought up in the old village of Shokan, is spending a few days at the summer home of his daughters, Mrs. Kendall Every and Mrs. John Grant. Mr. Bell was a resident of Whiteport for many years.

The Ashokan W.S.C.S. met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Seymour Winne, Sr., in Ashokan. The Glenford Queen Esther Society met May 12 with Mrs. Walter Maier at 8 p. m. The current program of the regular charge prayer meeting at the Glenford M. E. Church (Thursday, at 7:45 p. m., includes a study of the Book of Romans.

At the regular meeting of Olive Post, 1872, held in Samsonville last week, William Cohen of Ashokan was added to the roster of members which now totals 41 war veterans. "Willie" served as technical sergeant in Gen. George Patton's Army and was wounded in action.

A death of May 11, 1884, was that of Isaac S. Weeks, mountain road farmer who had come here from Westchester county many years previously. Mr. Weeks, who was a great-grandfather of Fred Weeks, Jr., of Napanoch, and Irving Weeks of Boiceville, resided in the present William Tuccling stone house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spencer of Bridgeport, Conn., spent the week-end at their Route 28 place. While in town, Larry presented some of his local friends with big juicy oranges which he had brought from the Indian River country of Florida.

Ashokan Abbie says that she can go along with the moralists in their belief that love should have its limitations. Abbie knows a genial local young fellow who is so bewitched by the girl friend that he "scratches his pancakes and pours syrup down the back of his neck."

Harley Keator, a native of Brown's Station, was numbered among the hustling Kingston businessmen calling in the hub of the reservoir country Monday afternoon.

A feature of the recent Ashokan-Lincoln Park baseball game, won by the locals, 20-11, was the three-base hit by Harold Weber of Shokan. Another ace for the locals was Andy Radke who struck out nine batters in the first three innings. It was quite a game.

Days of Old

The exact, or even approximate location of old Indian trails in Ulster is for the most part obscure. We do know, however, that the red men had such paths, just as their successors here, the early white settlers, had ox-wagon roads over which they drove from one clearing to another. It is interesting, in this connection, to note that all of the trails used by the great upstate tribes and the Indians of New England were linked up with those leading to the Ashokan, or "Ashokan" country, known for centuries as "good place to fish." The original post road to the upper Esopus valley, running up through the Winchell's Falls section of Marletown, had doubtless been one of the Ashokan trails, long before Andries Davis, a Tongore Revolutionary War veteran, had in young manhood, carried the mail pouch on foot between the fort at Hurley and the one in lower Shandaken. A really big, "through traffic" route was the path leading from the mouth of the Neversink, or Mahanomena, at Port Jervis, in an easterly direction past the Pecupack and through Mamkating Hollow, striking the Rondout Kill at Napanoch, and thence down the "great kill" through Wawarsing and Rochester to the Esopus Kill which it skirted, across the flatlands, to Saugerties. Tradition has it, that the Dutch, Welsh and Huguenot settlers, having landed at Saugerties, instead of Esopus, came up the valley and presumably trod this Indian trail to their new homes in central and western Ulster. (Is it not recorded that they came upon a great face carved on a giant sycamore at the "junction of a small stream with the great kill" and they then called this brook "Mombineus," or "the face?" Verily, yes!)

Cholera Remedy Studied
London (AP)—A new sulphamide compound called "six two five seven" which has had "remarkable" results in treating cholera is reported by the British Medical Journal. The Journal says 82 of 85 patients who took the compound in a field test by Dr. S. S. Bhattacharya in Madras, India, survived the disease. Most recovered in three days. "It would be rash to assert that a panacea for cholera has been obtained," the journal cautions. "Nevertheless results are so striking they merit further investigation."

Farm Bureau Releases Data on Control of Grubs

Ways of combatting the grubs of the Japanese Beetle are explained in the following article released today through the Ulster County Farm Bureau.

Grubs of the Japanese Beetle are now feeding on grass roots 3 to 4 inches below the soil surface in many turf areas. At this time turf may be damaged very seriously but the effects do not appear until the warm days of May or June when the grass turns brown and dies in irregularly shaped patches.

Grub damage is expected to be quite serious this year and depending on the grub population in your lawn DDT or Chlordane are the recommended control measures. Because of its high cost, Lead Arsenate is recommended for grub-proofing golf courses and putting greens only. Milky Disease Spore Dust is suggested for a slow but permanent control of Japanese Beetle Grubs.

DDT Versus Chlordane

DDT will become effective in 6 to 8 weeks time and will grub proof the lawn for at least four years. Only one application is necessary. If applied now, DDT will kill many of the over-wintering grubs but it will not act fast enough against extremely heavy populations of grubs (20 to 30 grubs per square foot) to entirely prevent grub damage this spring. DDT will, however, give nearly complete control beginning with the following brood of grubs which develop in late August and early September.

ment with a power lawn duster, a dosage of 250 pounds per acre of a 10 per cent dust has given satisfactory results.

For wet applications, a 50 per cent DDT wettable spray powder is recommended. These mix readily with water, and are the safest form of DDT sprays for grass or tender plants. DDT liquid emulsion sprays may cause injury to grass, and DDT-oil solutions or sprays sold for household pest control are very injurious to grass and other plants.

The amount of 50 per cent DDT wettable spray powder suggested is 50 pounds per acre, or 1 1/2 pounds to 1,000 square feet of turf. For application by power sprayer a dilution of 10 pounds per 100 gallons of water applied at the rate of 500 gallons per acre, or about 12 gallons to 1,000 square feet, should give satisfactory coverage. Small areas may be treated by means of watering can, using 1 1/2 pounds of the 50 per cent spray powder in 25 gallons of water for each 1,000 square feet.

Chlordane

Chlordane is suggested for treatment of heavy populations of grubs of any of these species that threaten to ruin a lawn in the spring before DDT would bring it under control.

DDT is cheaper than the Lead Arsenate treatment only 25 pounds of actual DDT is needed per acre as compared to 500 pounds per acre for Lead Arsenate. DDT is safe on all kinds of grasses, is compatible with all kinds of soil and permits earth worms (beneficial) to live. Do not use DDT preparations containing a sticking agent.

For dusting (dry application), a 10 per cent or 5 per cent DDT dust is available. For application by means of wheelbarrow lawn dusters or rotary crank dusters, use the 10 per cent dust at the rate of six pounds to 1,000 square feet, or the 5 per cent DDT at 12 pounds. If a suitable duster is not available the 5 per cent can be applied with a carefully adjusted fertilizer spreader and watered in. For large scale treat-

Lead Arsenate

Lead Arsenate is recommended for golf courses use only to protect trees and putting greens against many kinds of grubs and earthworms. Lead Arsenate is effective for 4 years and is applied at the rate of 10 pounds per 1,000 sq.

ft. The material may be applied either as a spray at the rate of 1 pound of arsenate of lead to 2 gallons of water using 20 gallons of 1,000 square feet, or mixed dry with 25 times its volume of moist sand, soil or other suitable material. Water in immediately after application.

D.D.T. is suggested for the golf fairway and Milky Disease Spore Dust for the mowed rough.

Milky Disease Spore Dust

Milky Disease Spore Dust is recommended for a slow but permanent control of Japanese Beetle Grubs. Milky Disease Spore Dust is available commercially and is best applied when the grub population has reached 2 to 4 to the square foot. On turf areas where the grub population is exceedingly great it is wise to use D.D.T. of Chlordane since Milky White Disease takes approximately 3 years to become effective. Milky Disease Spore Dust is suggested for lawn areas that can tolerate some injury while the Milky White Disease becomes established.

One pound of Milky Disease Spore Dust treats about one-half here. Apply the spore dust in "spots" (about one level teaspoonful) 10 feet apart in rows 10 feet apart. Water in the Spore Dust or apply just before a rain. One application is all that is necessary. Milky White Disease spreads automatically and is harmless to other creatures. Do not apply Milky Disease Spore Dust to lawn areas previously treated with Lead Arsenate, D.D.T. or Chlordane as these materials eliminate the grubs which are necessary to perpetuate and spread the Milky White germs through the soil.

Women Urged to Consider Nursing for Future Profession; Recruitment Drive Begins in County

This week marks the opening of a special student nurse recruitment campaign in Ulster county. The program, sponsored by local hospitals and health agencies, has been endorsed by Mayor Newkirk of Kingston and local organizations, including the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, Lions, American Legion Post 150, the Junior League, as well as the Medical Societies and Nursing Associations. Basically, the aim of the community recruitment drive is to interest young women of Kingston and neighboring towns in the opportunities for a career in professional nursing. The committee feels nursing is a good bet for any girl seeking a career with a future. The training she'll receive will not only prepare her for a diverse number of specialties in the nursing profession, but, in addition, will enlighten her on general health practices that will forever be of value and benefit to her. For nursing, besides being a promising profession, is an ideal preparation for marriage and the responsibilities of parenthood.

Opportunities for employment in the field of nursing have never been greater. There are currently more nurses at work than ever before and yet their professional services are in demand from hospitals and health agencies as well as in industry, private duty and the military services. Continual expansion of hospital facilities plus the development in medical science and an awakening on the part of industry to the necessity for adequate care for all personnel, support the belief that the need for nurses will not diminish.

The extent of the opportunities available in nursing was strikingly revealed in a recent report by the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor. According to the Bureau, between 200,000 and 250,000 additional nurses will be needed by 1960 to meet the health demands of the nation. As one spokeswoman for the American Nurses Association stated, "There will never be enough nurses."

For young women of Ulster county who desire to become professional nurses, local schools of nursing offer instruction leading to a nursing diploma. The faculties are competent, the curriculum is well organized, and the equipment for teaching is excellent. Furthermore, while the students are in training they live in comfortable homey quarters. Upon graduation there are countless opportunities for employment here in Kingston and vicinity.

An inquiry at the hospital Schools of Nursing will bring answers to most questions about nursing. The Kingston Hospital extends an invitation to anyone interested, to visit the hospital and Nurses Home on the afternoon of Friday, May 21.

GOING TO SEE NEW BABY

An ex-colonel tells me: "I sent my nephew's wife a present for their new baby. She is a stranger to me, because I have only lately returned home from overseas. In her note thanking me she suggested that I come to see the baby. Should I wait for a definite invitation or telephone some day beforehand and ask if convenient for me to come; or just go unannounced?"

On no account oblige her to send you a special invitation! Instead telephone—the sooner the better—and ask when you may go to see your niece and the baby.

Formal Thank You For Sympathy

Dear Mrs. Post: I'd like to know the correct way to sign a thank you card worded like the following: "Your kind sympathy is very much appreciated." Should this be signed by the mother for all? Or by individuals to each of their friends?

Answer: According to best taste, in typical private families, the card of the family is sent to the head of the family is sent to the majority of friends and neighbors with "Thanks for sympathy" written across the top. Very intimate friends and relatives are, of course, thanked verbally as they are seen. It is only when the deceased was so notable a personage that hundreds of expressions of sympathy require his family to send third person engraved cards, to which nothing is added to the message. For example:

The Family of the late Dr. Henry Medico wish gratefully to acknowledge your kind expression of sympathy Service at Family Table

Dear Mrs. Post: What is the correct order for service at a family dinner when the following are seated at table: (1) Mother (2) Father (3) Daughter (4) Mother's mother (5) Father's mother (6) Mother's sister and (7) her son.

Answer: I suppose you mean when Father as carving for individual persons at table, or when Mother is serving. For Father, the order would be: 4, 5, 6, 1, 2, 7, then himself. For Mother: 5, 4, 6, 3, 7, 2 and then herself. If dishes are handed around the table, one course would begin at carver's or server's right and continue in that direction; the next handed around to the left and alternated thereafter.

Laying food on the plate is one of the problems in good table manners which is discussed by Mrs. Post in her new leaflet, "Mistakes Made in the Name of Etiquette." To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Local Club to Seek Third Loop Win Behind Mains; Starts 4 P.M.

Kingston High School's Maroon and White diamond squad goes after victory number three in the DUSO League at municipal stadium Friday afternoon when Middletown High supplies the action in a game that may go a long way in determining the 1948 championship. Game time will be 4 p. m.

The Maroons, behind some stalwart pitching of Clark "No-Hit" Mains, have hung up a pair of wins over Port Jervis and Newburgh Free Academy. Kingston hammered Newburgh 14 to 1 in the most recent game this week.

Middletown also will throw an unbeaten DUSO League stand into Friday's tilt. The Middies, playing only one league skirmish to date, knocked off Newburgh in a thriller a couple of weeks ago. Middletown's engagement with Port Jervis was rained out.

Hal Schweickhardt, number one pitcher for Coach MacWagner's Blue and White squad, will undoubtedly get the call to stop the Maroon powerhouse tomorrow. The big right-hander has figured prominently in Middletown's successes this year and if any league hurler can halt Kingston, Schweickhardt is the gent.

The ace Middle moundsman has a neat list of 31 strikeout victims to his credit so far this season. Should Schweickhardt find the going tough against Coach Willard Burke's thumpers, Middletown will have Red McCormick available for relief duty.

Kingston's hitting attack which was stalled Tuesday by Mort Freigh's two-hitter as Saugerties squeaked through with a 1-0 win, figures to get going again Friday. The Maroons hammered out 12 hits in routing Newburgh and all through Middletown's mound crew stands as much superior to Newburgh's tossers, local followers expect the Maroon to find the range again Friday.

Meanwhile, Mains, Kingston's great right-hander, hopes to start off on another scoreless streak against the Middle batsmen. His 20 straight scoreless frames ended this week when Newburgh pushed across a run in the fourth frame.

Graziano Nearing Peak During Drills In Ellenville Gym

Ellenville, N. Y., May 13 (AP)—His title fight with Tony Zale still is four weeks away but to a casual observer Middleweight Champion Rocky Graziano looks fit and ready to go.

The rugged, left-hitting New Yorker is in and trim after several weeks of training up here in the Catskill mountains. A natural middleweight, he's close to the 160-pound division limit and probably will enter the ring a few pounds under.

The training camp is pitched at the plush Nekoee Country Club, a year-around resort. The guests, mostly honeymooners, give Rocky loud support as he goes through his paces in a ring erected in the club's clubhouse.

The clear mountain air bothered the Rock more than his sparring partners' punches for a while. He's more at home in New York's still-muggy gym, where the air comes through cracks in the windows.

But Graziano has adapted himself to the mountain layout. Each morning he hits the road for a hike and run of 14 miles.

In the afternoon he works in the ring—and work is the word for it.

Of Zale, Rocky says: "He's a real tough customer. This fight's going to be like the other two. One of us won't be standing up after a while and I aim to be the one still swinging."

If he wins, and there's solid confidence at this camp he will take the rubber match, Graziano probably will be matched with Marcel Cerdan, the rugged French champion. That's as much a natural as the third clash between Zale and Graziano which will be staged in Ruppert Stadium, Newark, N. J., June 9.

The first two bouts ended in six-round knockouts. Zale won the first in Yankee Stadium, September 27, 1946. Rocky lifted the crown last July in Chicago.

Major League Roundup

By The Associated Press

By JACK HAND, Associated Press Sports Writer

Connie Mack's collection of drafties and hand-me-downs is showing up the rich major league clubs with a 10-game win streak. His Philadelphia A's are upholding the old theory that you can't buy a pennant.

While Tom Yawkey of the Boston Red Sox was writing checks for some $350,000, Mr. Mack was busy scarfing the draft lists. By the studious avoidance of any large outlay of cash, the venerable old gentleman has acquired quite a ball club.

And they've been winning quite handsily, too, although they did have to struggle to achieve an 8-4 victory over the St. Louis Browns last night. Three hits and four walks added up to six runs for Philadelphia in the second inning, to the delight of the crowd of 21,763.

Pitches No-Hitter Rhodes Loses City League Game, 4 to 1

George Rhodes, youthful pitcher for the Newcombe Oil softball team, learned the hard way Wednesday night that it doesn't always pay off when you turn in a no-hitter. The Oiler moundsman did just that last night against Union Hose but found himself on the short end of a 4 to 1 count.

Rhodes kept the Union batsmen away from the hit zone for the full seven inning stint but his control kept him in hot water as he issued six costly walks, hit three batters while his catcher committed two passed balls. On the other side of the ledger, the hurler came up with nine strikeouts.

After three scoreless frames, Union jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the fourth after two were out. A walk, a wild pitch and two passed balls brought in the first marker. Newcombe's knotted the count in the bottom half of the fourth on Kaman's single, a stolen base and a brace of passed balls.

Faulty control still plagued Rhodes in the sixth when Union "iced" the game. A hit batsman, a couple of walks, a wild pitch and an infield error set up the rally for the winners and they promptly pushed across the deciding tallies.

Fowler went all the way for Union and was touched for six hits. He walked two and whiffed one batter.

Subways Win, 13-2
The Subway Grill softies hammered out an easy 13 to 2 win over Bnai Brith in another City League tilt at the Armory No. 1 diamond. The winners collected 18 hits. Spada worked for the Subways.

Ben Freer Hurls Shutout As Sickler's Win, 12 to 0

Behind the brilliant three-hit pitching of Ben Freer, Sickler's Delivery notched victory number two in the City Softball League Wednesday night at the armory diamond with an easy 12 to 0 decision over Cordis Hose.

The winners enjoyed clusters of three runs in the second and fourth frames, four in the third and two more in the sixth to win going away.

Murphy highlighted the big third inning bulge with a homer with two aboard. Batting honors went to Murphy, Ruzzo, Madden and Freer, each collecting a brace of hits.

Trainer Claims Citation Sharper Than in Derby Win

As it was, the trainer didn't have to wait long for the annual Kentucky Derby. Breakers up from a long wait for the Kentucky Derby.

King's better self, third in the Wood Memorial, is on deck as is Howard, Sylvester W. Tabor's Maryland hopeful, Schinagund, William Helt's Santa Anita Derby winner, is due on the grounds at any moment.

The last of the quartet is Vulcan's Forge from the stable of Cornelius V. Whitney. This chestnut colt, the son of an imported English turf star—Mahmoud—was third to Howard in Pimlico's survivor stakes Monday.

May Limit Betting
The expected small field posed a problem for the Maryland Jockey Club which is pondering whether to ask the Maryland Racing Commission about restricting betting.

At the Derby only win betting was allowed after Citation had caused minus pools at Havre De Grace, Md., and Churchill Downs.

Citation is expected to start Saturday at around 1 to 10, and is considered a short-priced favorite. Many bettors will prefer to place or place or show tickets, even to collect 10 cents on the dollar.

If most of the money is slapped on the favorite, the track doesn't take in enough on that particular race to pay off the tickets.

Catholic A.A. Plans Banquet at Alpine
The Catholic Athletic Association will hold its annual banquet at the Alpine on DeWitt Lake on Wednesday, May 26.

The program will include a roast beef dinner, short speeches by guest speakers, awarding of prizes and trophies and dancing. The public is invited to attend.

Final plans for the affair were mapped at a meeting of the bowling and softball captains at the K. of C. building last night. Final arrangements were made for the formation of a softball league this season.

Hercules Softies Win
"Red" Newell went all the way for the Hercules Powdermen Wednesday night and tossed a neat four-hitter to win 8 to 1 over Scranton Luce at the lower Hasbrouck diamond in a regular City League game. The winners collected 10 hits off the offerings of Brown.

It's Gotta Be a Mob Scene

When Babe Ruth smacked his 60th home run for the season of 1927, a record that has never been equalled, only the Yankees' Lou Gehrig, their bat boy, the umpire and opposing catcher were at the plate to watch him complete the bases, as this picture shows.

But when Hollywood duplicated the scene with actor William Bendix at Yankee Stadium, in their quest for authenticity, they had to get everybody but the butcher boy in the act.

Bull Fight Canceled
Tokyo, May 13 (AP)—Scratch one bull fight. Tokyo police today canceled Saturday's scheduled battle royal involving four big bulls dressed in brocade and silk sashes. The reason: The cops feared the bulls might get hurt. Japanese bull fights are different from those in Spain. Over here the bulls lock horns and fight each other.

Battery Stays Together

Graduation from Mississippi will not break up the famous football battery formed by Charley Conerly, left, and Barney Poohe. They will perform with the New York Giants next autumn. Both established national collegiate records in 1947, Conerly completing 133 passes during the regular campaign, 12 more in helping to defeat Texas Christian in the Delta Bowl. Poohe snared 52 passes during the regular season, another in the Bowl game. Conerly threw for 20 touchdowns, eight to Poohe. Outfielder Conerly batted .463 in 20 baseball games this spring. Poohe played first base.

Training Program Begins To Assist Puerto Ricans

Washington, May 13 (AP)—The Labor Department says a Puerto Rican training project is starting to furnish household workers for Scarsdale, N. Y. housewives.

The May bulletin "Labor Information" of the Labor Department describes an insular government training program. The article says:

"Trained workers, careful placement, good working conditions, and community understanding are promised under the New Puerto Rican government project which recently led to the placement of 21 Puerto Rican household workers in the homes of Scarsdale, N. Y. housewives."

Highlights of the labor bulletin report:

"The new undertaking is the insular government's pilot project of training and placement of household workers, a program made possible by the foresight and work of such Puerto Rican officials as Fernando Siles, labor director, commissioner of labor, and the cooperation of the Women's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor and the New York State Employment Service."

"The newcomers to the Westchester county city (Scarsdale) are from the first graduating class of the project's initial program."

"They started their courses last November and received certificates in January. They attended classes from 3:30 to 6:30 five days a week, often after performing a full day's work."

"In addition to learning the rudiments of cooking, housekeeping and child care, they received training in household English and instruction about the habits and customs of continental United States."

"Under the employment agreements which were signed with their Scarsdale employers, the Puerto Rican workers will earn $25 per week for the first 13 weeks, $27.50 for the second 13 weeks, $30 for the third and $32.50 for the fourth."

"Thereafter, if their services are retained, they will receive at least $35 or more weekly. Total deductions during the first eight months employment will amount to approximately $145, which will cover the $75 paid by their employer for the cost of air transportation between San Juan and New York city and the $60 advanced for the purchase of winter clothing."

"Deductions from the worker's pay envelope start at $3, the sum withheld for the first 13 weeks. Thereafter, the amount becomes progressively smaller."

"The article concluded: 'Chief obligation of the Scarsdale housewives, with reference to their employers, are to see that they receive on-the-job training, have satisfactory living quarters, the freedom to attend religious services, receive seven holidays throughout the year, and work not more than 10 hours per day nor more than 48 hours per week.'

"If the hours in any day are exceeded, the employee is to receive overtime payments at a rate not less than one and a half times the weekly salary, divided by 48."

"On her side, the employee is obligated to perform with diligence and due regard for the employer's preferences 'all the tasks specified' in the agreement."

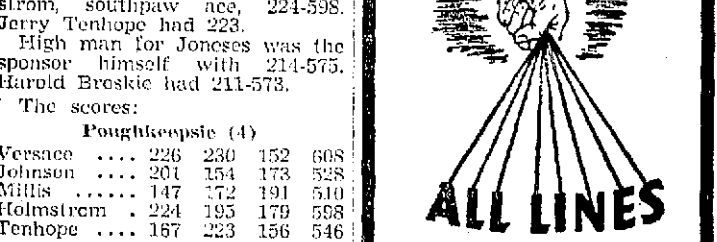

"These may include cleaning, cooking, table service, laundering, infant care, pre-school child care, school-age child care. On signing the agreement, employers are asked to specify the duties they consider most important."

Average Is $2,839
Washington, May 13 (AP)—The average U. S. government worker now makes $2,839 a year. The Civil Service Commission said today after a study of federal pay scales in effect last July. Bills are pending to give some 1,300,000 federal employees a raise, but Congress has not yet approved the proposed increases. The commission reported 80 per cent of the federal job holders make from $1,500 to $3,500 a year, 3 per cent get less than $1,500 and the remaining 17 per cent earn $3,500 or more.

Women Protest Shortage
Frankfurt, Germany, May 13 (AP)—German women 5,000 strong marched on Adolf Hitler's former parade ground in Munich today in protest against food shortages. "We and our children are hungry," they cried. Another 800 paraded before the Coburg city hall demanding an "end of the hunger government." Thousands of men were on strike against food shortages in the American Zone, particularly in Munich, Nuremberg and Augsburg.

Grapefruit Is Suggested
Lake Alfred, Fla., May 13 (AP)—Good-natured cattle can be fattened on a grapefruit diet. But, an expert warned in a talk before cattlemen last night, it won't work if the animals have a trace of wildness. Dr. W. G. Kirk, vice director of Florida's state experiment station, said undue excitement seemed to disturb the wild ones. This keeps weight down. The cattle like the taste of grapefruit even more so if it is fermented a bit, he said. Dr. Kirk added that meat from grapefruit-fed cattle is as good as western beef.

Irish Heavy Wins Ring Debut Here

New York, May 13 (AP)—Metropolitan boxing fans still didn't know what to think today about the giant heavyweight from Ireland—seven-foot-two, 262-pound Jim Cully.

The Tipperary tower, being billed as another Primo Carnera, knocked out Wally Baden, 202½, of Scranton, Pa., in 2:13 of the first round of their scheduled eight-rounder last night at Jamaica arena. It was Cully's professional ring debut.

Baden went down five times before he was counted out but fans weren't satisfied with the result. They booed the result loudly.

Two times the Pennsylvania slipped to the floor and the other three times he was felled by blows that didn't look too terrific.

Cully is 24 years old and before coming to this country to try his stuff in the prize ring managed a carnival in Tipperary, Ireland. He said he had three amateur fights in the old country. But he was sorry, he didn't remember how they came out.

The driver was not injured, the policemen said.

Haitz was making a turn into the garage when the accident occurred, police said. The car received damage to the left side, and several cat-eye guide posts along the side of the street were damaged.

Says Child Can Sue
Lima, O., May 13 (AP)—A child has a right to sue after birth for pre-natal injuries, the Ohio Third District Court of Appeals held yesterday. The decision was handed down in a $50,000 damage suit filed for Nina Margaret Williams by her father against Marion Rapid Transit Co., Marion, O. The court said an infant has cause for action if injuries occurred beyond the embryo stage. The Appeals Court reversed a ruling by the Marion Common Pleas Court that Ohio law does not allow for recovery of damages for pre-natal injuries to an unborn child.

Dormitory Workers Feted at Banquet

Eleven members of the Y.M.C.A. Dormitory Club, who formed the winning team in the recent "Y" financial drive, were guests of the proprietor of Judie's on Albany avenue Wednesday night. The team, led by Jacob Camp, president, solicited $502, the largest amount in pledges of the 11 teams competing for honors in the work of raising funds for the next 12 month period of Y.M.C.A.

Four Members of 'Bottle Gang' Get 10 Days in Jail

While making a tour of the downtown section of the city at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday, Patrolmen Louis Sapp and Ernest Bartoff arrested a group of five men, charging each with public intoxication.

In sentencing the men this morning, City Judge Matthew V. Culliff characterized four of the men as members of the "bottle gang," and advised them to "do some thinking" during their time in jail and determine to find employment during the day, instead of spending their time drinking. To three of the men, he gave additional sentences which were suspended, warning them that if they ever were found with the "bottle gang" again, whether they were sober or not, they would have to serve the full time.

All were given sentences of 10 days in the county jail, and the suspended sentences ranged from 30 to 180 days additional. The fifth man arrested, Judge Culliff said had a good record, and was not a regular member of the gang. He advised this man to keep away from the gang, and allowed him to go free.

The men all of whom pleaded guilty, and the sentences handed them by the city judge, were: John Witkoski, 47, who gave his address as 27 Hanover street. He was sentenced to 10 days in jail, plus a suspended sentence of 180 days.

John Lowe, 64, who said he is now living in Rensselaer. Sentenced to 10 days in jail.

Arthur Benderwald, 59, of Slidell, La. Sentenced to 10 days, plus 180 days suspended.

James Longendyke, 52, who gave his address as 22 Broadway. Sentenced to 10 days, plus 30 days suspended.

Boy Leaves Hospital
 David Bloom, 9, son of Rabbi and Mrs. Bloom, 192 Clinton avenue, was discharged from the Kingston Hospital Wednesday following treatment for injuries suffered when he fell from an auto on the Minerva Trail last Saturday. The boy suffered a head injury and a few teeth were knocked out, the family said. The accident happened between Kerhonkson and Ireland Corners.

Modern Knowledge
 Washington (AP)—Students estimate that use of rockets in research have brought more knowledge about the earth's upper atmosphere since World War II than in the previous 20 years of study.

Progress Comparison
 Washington (AP)—Aviation engineers suggest that rockets at the end of World War II were in about the same stage of development as were airplanes at the end of World War I.

New Revelation
 New studies reveal that the probable cause of aurora borealis, known as "northern lights," is streams of hydrogen ions or particles, swarming into the earth's atmosphere from the outside.
